THE subscribers inform the Public, that they have purchased of Doctor Wilkins his Receipt and the sole right to make and prepare his Pills, known by the name of Wilkins' Antibilious Pills. These Pills have been sold in this city and the neighboring country for the last twelve years, and during that time have acquired a character (for safe and effectual operation) over all medicines of that class ever offered to the public. Their composition is known to and approved of by several of the most eminent physicians of this place. The subscribers, with a view to extend their sale in the country, and to render them an object to country druggists and others, have reduced their wholesale price very considerably; and to accommodate individuals, will furnish them for the future in whole boxes at 50 cents, and half boxes at 25 cents each.

To prevent imposition from counterfeiters, each direction will be signed by Dr. Henry Wilkins, the original, and D. & C. Keener, the present proprietors. D. & C. KEENER. Wholesale and Retail Druggists, No. 156 Market-street, Baltimore. April 13 3w

Fan-Sash Making.

METAL FAN-SASHES, of various descriptions, will be made by the subscriber, at his shop, lower end of Duke street. The want of a Metal Fan-Sash Manufactory in Alexandria, has hitherto been severely felt by builders and others, who have been compelled to make use of wood, which is neither elegant nor durable. The various forms into which the metal can be shaped have given it a decided superiority, and the difference in the price is very trifling. The subscriber has been at considerable expense in procuring the necessary preparations, and relies on public enterprise for success in the undertaking.

Gentlemen in the country, by sending the dimensions of their sashes, can have them made at the same price as if in town. JAMES T. HOLLAN February 19

Proposals.

FOR Publishing by Subscription, and now ready for the press, a series of historical volumes, which when finished will assume the title of

Universal History Americanised;

Or, an historical view of Europe, Asia, Africa and America, from the earliest records to the nineteenth century—with a particular reference to the state of society, literature, religion, and form of government in the United States of America.

BY DAVID RAMSAY, M.D. "Life is so short and time so valuable, that it were happy for us if all great works were reduced to their quintessence." Sir William Jones.

PROSPECTUS.

ASIA. The Asiatic part of this work contains a general view of the antediluvians—the general deluge—the re-creation of the globe after that great event—the primitive post-diluvian nations which were formed in Asia, the cradle of the world. Their various ramifications, revolutions, and of the general course of Empire.

AFRICA. The African part, contains a concise history of Egypt, Carthage, Numidia, Mauritania, Abyssinia, of the Firical States, and the Hottentots, with a group view of its antediluvian settlements.

EUROPE. The European part, contains the history of Greece and Rome, from their origin to their dissolution—of the various nations which were conquered by them—and of the nations by which the Romans themselves were finally conquered, and of the nations which were formed from the fragments of the Roman Empire, and the various revolutions of the latter, together with a view of the nations which never were subjected to the Romans.

AMERICA. The American part, contains a general history of the Western continent, under the heads of Free, European, and Aboriginal or unconquered America. The first contains a history of the United States, from their first settlement as English Colonies, till the present times—the second, of all parts dependent on Europe—and the third, of all that are still owned by the Aborigines.

It is expected that the whole will be comprised in 10 or 12 octavo volumes, of between four and five hundred pages each—to be printed in Philadelphia, on good paper and fair types, for $3 1-3 per volume, in sheep binding, or $4 1-3 Call Gilt, to be paid for on delivery.

AUTHORITIES.

This work has been in contemplation upwards of 40 years. The project of it was conceived in 1766, on reading the Universal History, then recently edited in 80 volumes, by a society of gentlemen in England. The original idea of extracting the quintessence of that voluminous work, which contained the most complete system of history the world had then seen, has ever since been enlarging and improving by an attentive perusal of the histories written by Robertson, Home, Gibbon, and other modern authors—of the Asiatic researches of the works of Sir William Jones, and other learned Orientalists—the publications of intelligent travellers, who, in the course of the last half century have explored almost every region of the globe. These collectively have thrown a blaze of light on countries comparatively unknown, and on portions, both of ancient and modern history which were confused and obscure at the period when the writers of the Universal History published their work. The arrangement of materials collected from these sources commenced in the year 1780, when, in consequence of the surrender of Charleston to Sir Henry Clinton, the author was suddenly released from a sea of business, and sent as a prisoner of war to the British Garrison, then in St. Augustine, and there confined for eleven months, without any peculiar employment. Steady progress has been made for the last ten years in correcting and transcribing the work for publication.

UNITED STATES.

The History of the United States is given at full length—that of foreign countries is more or less expanded or contracted in proportion to the intrinsic importance of each—its tendency to illustrate portions of Holy Writ—the Greek and Latin Classics—and also in proportion to its connexion with the U. States, or as furnishing useful practical information to its citizens, or as the paternal soil of their ancestors.

The above sketch of the nature and objects of this immense work, which has occupied the attention of the Author for upwards of 40 years, was found among his papers, and is now given to the public in his own words. Since that period, a few chapters, have been added by the Reverend SAMUEL STANHOPE SMITH, which brings it down to the close of the last war.

The publication commences with a third impression of the History of the U. States, in three volumes, which is all that has ever appeared. The whole will not be delivered under 15 or 20 months. It is proper to state, that the gentlemen who have the direction of it are neither booksellers nor printers, and receive no pecuniary consideration for their trouble—but are willing to make the necessary advances to carry it into execution provided the sale is warranted by public patronage. The profits arising are to be appropriated for the support and education of his children, four of each sex; to them its success is a matter of deep importance.

For the prevention and cure of Bilious and Malignant Fevers is recommended HAN'S ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS. THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern Middle States, &c.

The testimony of a number of persons who have been cured, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.

Facts of this conclusive nature speak in favour of a medicine than cures of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.

It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, at the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases deemed desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.

The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, so as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age. They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold it taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.

They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND DAILY ADVERTISER.

PUBLISHED BY
SAMUEL SNOWDEN,
ROYAL STREET.

Daily Gazette $7—Country Gazette $5.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 6, 1818.

From the Baltimore Federal Republican.

Was ever girl in such a rage,
I'm five and twenty years of age,
And I'm not married yet.

Young men, your blood runs very cold,
Or surely you are blind;
Consider you are growing old,
And prove yourselves more kind.

Will you not mark each winning, while I try your hearts to gain?
To this a nod, to that a smile,
To make my meaning plain.

Come, youth is fleeting fast away,
Old age comes on a pace,
And envious time, from day to day,
Plants wrinkles on my face.

Come, destined husband, say no more,
Make me no longer wait;
For soon my charms will all be o'er—Old age stands at the gate.

THE INDIAN CHIEF WEATHERFORD.

In reading the life of gen. Jackson, recently published by major Head, my attention was forcibly arrested by the fearless manner, and manly language, in which this untutored inhabitant of the forest addressed the commander of the American army in his own tent. Whether, or not, Weatherford, like some of Livy's heroes, is in any degree indebted to the author, for the garb in which his sentiments appear before the public, I am unable to say. I have no hesitation, however, in believing that it is a faithful narrative of what occurred at the interview alluded to. Since the frequent "talks" which have been held with the different Indian tribes bold, original, and even lofty sentiments, may even genuine traits of eloquence have ceased to be novelties to the harangue of a North American savage. But it is the magnanimous and decided conduct of Weatherford, at a moment fraught with peril to himself and to his country, that I particularly admire. It speaks a man of no common stamp, and should rescue his name, like those of Algonack and Logan from obscurity. The spirit and feelings which animated him, and the frankness with which he obeyed their dictates, are truly Roman virtues, and such as would have dignified a consul of that republic in his proudest days. I question whether history can furnish an instance, even in civilized life, where a vanquished enemy has appeared in a more pleasing point of view; placing himself voluntarily in the power of a conqueror whom he had provoked almost beyond endurance; and freely admitting, but in the same breath bitterly lamenting his inability to prolong a contest, for his agency in which he had to apprehend the most serious consequences. Those who have not an opportunity of reading the passage referred to, and can mark and admire this bold display of savage genius will no doubt be gratified by seeing it in your columns. The biographer having stated that the chiefs of the different tribes were daily arriving at head quarters, and offering to submit on any terms, proceeds to inform us, that "to put their friendly professions at once to the test, Jackson directed them to bring Weatherford to his camp, tied, that he might be dealt with as he deserved; he was one of the first chiefs of the nation, and had been the principal actor in the butchery at Fort Mimms. Learning from the chiefs on their return what had been required of them by Jackson, he was prevailed upon as perhaps being the safer course to go and make a voluntary surrender of himself.

Having reached the camp without being known, and obtained admission to the general's quarters, he told him he was Weatherford, the chief who had commanded at Fort Mimms, and desiring peace for himself and his people, he had come to ask it. Somewhat surprised that one who so richly merited punishment, should so sternly demand the protection which had been extended to others, he replied to him that he was astonished he should venture to appear in his presence; that he was not ignorant of his having been at Fort Mimms, nor of his conduct there, for which he ought to die. I had directed, continued he, that you should be brought to me confined; that you have appeared in this way I should have known how to have treated you. Weatherford replied, "I am in your power—do with me as you please." I am a soldier, I have done the white people all the harm I could; I have fought them and fought them bravely. If I had an army, I would yet fight and contend to the last; but I have none; my people are gone—I can now do no more than weep over the misfortunes of my nation." Pleased at the firmness of the man, Jackson informed him that he did not solicit him to lay down his arms, and become peaceable. "The terms on which your nation can be saved, and peace restored, have already been disclosed; in this way, and none other can you obtain safety." If, however, he wished still to continue the war, and felt himself prepared to meet the consequences, although he was then completely in his power, no advantage should be taken of that circumstance; that he was at perfect liberty to retire, and settle himself with the war party if he pleased; but if taken, his life should pay the forfeit of his crimes; if this was not desired, he might remain where he was, and should be protected.

Weatherford answered that he desired peace, that his nation might in some measure be relieved from their sufferings; that independent of other misfortunes growing out of a state of war, their cattle and grain were all wasted and destroyed, and their women and children destitute of provisions. "But," continued he, "I may be well addressed in such language now. There was a time when I had a choice, and could have answered you; I have none now; even hope has ended." Once I could animate my warriors to battle; but I cannot animate the dead. My warriors can no longer hear my voice; their bones are at Talladega. Tallahatchee, Enuckfaw and Tehopeka! I have not surrendered thoughtlessly. Whilst there were chances of success, I never left my post, nor supplicated for peace. But my people are gone, and I now ask it for my nation and for myself. On the miseries and misfortunes brought upon my country I look back with the deepest sorrow, and wish to avert still greater calamities. If I had been left to contend with the Georgia army, I would have raised my corn on one bank of the river, and fought them on the other; but your people have destroyed my nation. You are a brave man I rely upon your generosity. You will exact no terms on a conquered people but such as they should accede to; whatever they may be, it would now be madness and folly to oppose. If they are opposed, you should find me among the sternest enforcers of obedience. Those who would still hold out, can be influenced only by a mean spirit of revenge; and to this they must not and shall not sacrifice the last remnant of their country. You have told us where we might go and be safe. This is a good talk, and my nation ought to listen to it—they shall listen to it."

The earnestness and bold intemperance of his conduct, left no doubt of the sincerity of his professions. The peace party became reconciled to him, and agreed to bury previous animosities. In a few days afterwards, having obtained permission, he set out from the camp, accompanied by a small party, to search the forest for his friends and followers and to persuade them to give up the contest in which hope seemed to be at an end, and by timely submission to save their country from still further disasters.

DOGS AT COURT.

Sir Thomas Roe took out some English mastiffs to India, as a present for the Great Mogul; they were of marvellous courage. One of them leapt overboard to attack a shoal of porpoises, and was lost. Only two of them lived to reach India. They travelled each in a little coach to Agra; one broke loose by the way, fell upon a large elephant, and fastened in his trunk; the elephant at last succeeded in hurting him off. This story delighted the Mogul, and these dogs in consequence came to an extraordinary fortune as Whittington's cat. Each had a palanquin to take the air in, with two attendants to bear him, and two more to walk on each side and fan off the flies; and the Mogul had a pair of silver tongs made, that he might when he pleased feed them with his own hand.

There was a Newfoundland dog on board the Bellona last war, who kept the deck during the battle of Copenhagen running backward and forward with so brave an anger that he became a greater favorite with the men than ever. When the ship was paid off after the peace of Amiens, the sailors had a parting dinner on shore. Victor, was placed in the chair, and fed with roast beef and plum pudding, and the bill was made out in Victor's name. He was so called after his original master, who was no less a personage than Victor Hugues.

The reputation of Pope as a writer of Epitaphs, has been consecrated by the commendation of time and posterity. It shines like a light in the very tabernacle of this species of poetry. Yet we question much, if in the voluminous excellencies of his talent in this regard, we could find a parallel to the beautiful and affecting simplicity of the inscription with which the quonstentations Moravian solemnizes the departure from this, to the world of shadows and darkness that exists beyond the grave!—He was born, on such a day, and, on such another, he returned to his native country. Such is the Moravian Epitaph! How awfully, yet how pathetically true! Our existence here is indeed an exile from our home—a pilgrimage of anguish in a strange land—We sit by the rivers of Babylon and weep beneath the gloom of their willows, for the bloom and the verdure—the peace and tranquility of our native shores!

Unwise is that man who can be either dejected or exalted with the frowns or smiles of various fortune.

Extract of a letter, dated at Havana, April 10.

"In provisions and wines a change has taken place. Barrelled beef and pork have been received in some quantity, and occasioned a fall in their price. Also jerked beef; but there is still a great demand for this article. Catalonia wine is in plenty; Spanish sweet oil we are absolutely without, and almost any price may be obtained for it. Of flour our supplies have been regular.

"We are strongly of opinion that sugars will experience shortly a material decline in price, as latterly the export has been by no means equal to the expectations formed, nor what might have been looked for from the number of vessels in port. The exportation during the last three months, has only been 19,528 boxes; whereas in 1817, for the corresponding period, it was upwards of 45,000 boxes. This, with the additional quantity expected at market, must naturally affect its price greatly; particularly when we add, there is at present but little demand. Coffee continues without variation, and the quantity remaining of this crop very trifling.

"There is every probability of the Insurgents being entirely subdued in Mexico. Our accounts from thence latterly, have been of the most favorable description, and, we understand, that the roads into the interior from Vera Cruz, are nearly free. We shall be happy to be able to advise you that they are safe for travellers, as in that event our market will be immediately cleared of all German and French Linens and other articles adapted for that country; some shipments are making for that quarter now, but they are not great.

"All invoices should be certified by the Spanish consul, otherwise there is an additional duty of 10 per cent. on the amount of the invoice."

From the New York Evening Post. Copy of a letter from Capt. H. Coffin, to John Richardson, Liverpool, the 9th March.

Killingham, March 5.

"I am sorry to inform you of the accident which has befallen the ship Robert Burns. I left Liverpool on the 11th of last month, for New-York—and went North about—the wind continued to the South until the 17th. I was then in the long, of 18, when I took a severe gale from the westward, which lasted without any cessation till the 25th. About 9 in the morning, I was boarded by a tremendous sea, which swept every thing by the board, masts, bowsprit, and rudder, and every thing else above deck. I will not pretend to mention what I have lost, but I will just tell you what I have left. I have my windlass, bellrey, and 2 pumps, one of which was rendered useless; 8 of my men were washed overboard, 3 of which got in again, and 5 were drowned; the first step I then took was to cut away all the masts, and clear the wreck along side. I found the ship then making a great deal of water in her upper works, and 5 feet water in her hold. I found it necessary to lighten the ship, which I did by throwing overboard the cargo, and with what men I had on board, I freed the ship by 10 o'clock next day. I had only two small spars left on deck, which I rigged up for jury masts, and made the best of my way for Ireland. I got nearly into Sligo, but the wind coming to the southward, blew me off near Filling Point, where the ship now lays in a very dangerous situation. I have laid here forty-eight hours, but blowing so strong, no boat could come near until now. I have just got on shore, and engaged the cutters to tow the ship into this harbor."

[New-York, May 1. SPECIE.

We learn, that the George, arrived here yesterday from London, brought $400,000 in specie for the United States Bank. The Edward Byam, from Antigua and Montserrat, $50,000—and the Adonis, from Havre. $54,000.

Downington, Penn. April 28.

The season is extremely unpromising so far, in this part of the country. Chilling winds, freezing nights and frosty mornings, make up the common diurnal round. Last Tuesday, we experienced as incessant a snow storm, as any that occurred during the past winter; and on Wednesday morning the fields were mantled in white, more resembling the dreary front of January than the enlivening approach of May. It is generally remarked, that winter grain never looked more disheartening. There is scarcely a field to be seen, that can be called tolerable. But we have a promise that seed time and harvest shall not be withheld; and it does not become us frail beings, to distrust this sacred guarantee. If we use our reasonable exertions, accompanied with a contrite spirit, we may safely trust the result with HIM who hath told his people,—"I will never leave thee nor forsake thee."

Albany, April 28.

The season continues uncommonly backward. The Hellebergh and the mountains to the east, appeared on Friday covered with snow, which we believe has not melted upon the head waters of the Hudson. Lake Champlain is, however, clear of ice, and the steam boat is in operation. The Montreal papers received two days ago, mention that the ice had broken up only in the middle of the St. Lawrence.

Canandaigua, N. F. April 21.

Our oldest citizens do not recollect such extraordinary weather, at this season of the year, as we have witnessed within the last fortnight. There had been a constant rain for many days, which raised the waters, particularly the Canandaigua lake, higher than has been known for 25 years. On the 12th instant it cleared away pleasantly, and for several days the spring appeared to be opening favorably. On Friday last it again began to rain, but soon changed to a snow storm, which continued till yesterday noon. The roads already very bad will become worse.

Extract of a letter from the upper part of Delaware, dated April 24.

"In consequence of the late frosts and high winds, our prospects of a favorable wheat crop are entirely destroyed."

In addition to the above, says the Baltimore American, we learn by a respectable gentleman from Lancaster county, that owing to the same causes, not more than one half the usual quantity of grain will be raised this year in that county.

There will be market for butchers' meat on Sunday next.

STOMACHIC BITTERS.
These celebrated bitters are composed purely of vegetables of the most innocent, yet specific virtues, and are infinitely superior to any thing yet discovered, for restoring weak and decayed constitutions, destroying worms, cleansing and strengthening the stomach, increasing the appetite, and by the frequent use of them, they are a certain preventive against those complaints so common in the spring and fall seasons, such as intermittent fevers, and agues, long Autumnal fevers, dysenteries, &c. They are also of infinite service to those in the declining line, who make long voyages at sea, and are exposed to unhealthy climates; a preventive against contagious diseases—they are also a very pleasant bitter and are particularly recommended for the use of Travelers and Public Houses, as well as private families.

James Kennedy & Son,
RESPECTFULLY inform the public that they have just received from LEE'S MEDICINE STORE,
No. 46, Maiden lane, New-York a fresh supply of the following valuable MEDI-CINES:
Hamilton's Worm-destroying Lozenges,
Which have within sixteen years past cured an immense number of persons of both sexes of every age and in every situation, of various dangerous complaints arising from WORMS, and from obstructions or foulness in the stomach and bowels.

This medicine bears no analogy whatever to others of similar titles so commonly complained of as operating with violence; on the contrary a particular excellence of this remedy is its being suited to every age and constitution. It contains nothing but what is perfectly innocent & is so mild in its operation that it cannot injure the most delicate pregnant lady or the tenderest infant of a week old should no worms exist in the body; but will without pain or griping cleanse the stomach and bowels of whatever is foul or offensive, and thereby prevent the production of worms and many fatal disorders. The lozenges are particularly efficacious in carrying off all gross humours and eruptions, feverish and bilious complaints, and are the safest and mildest purgative that can be used on any occasion.

Description of Worms, and the symptoms by which they are known.
Worms which infest the human body are chiefly of four kinds viz.—The Ter-rene or large round worm; the Ascaris or small maw-worm; the Cucurbitine or short flat white worm; and lastly, the Tenia or tape-worm, so called from its resemblance to tape. This is often many yards long and is full of joints. It is most hurtful and most difficult to remove.

Among the symptoms attending worms are—disagreeable breath, especially in the morning; bad and corrupted gum; itching in the nose, and about the seat of convulsions, epileptic fits, and sometimes privation of speech; starting and grinding of the teeth in sleep; irregular appetite, sometimes loathing food and sometimes voracious; purging with slimy and fetid stools; vomiting; large and hard belly; pains and sickness at the stomach; pains in the head and thighs and lowness of spirits; slow fever with small and irregular pulse; a dry cough; excessive thirst; sometimes pale and unhealthy countenance, and sometimes the face bloated and flushed.

Persons afflicted with any of the above symptoms should have immediate recourse to Hamilton's Worm Destroying Lozenges, which have been constantly attended with success in all complaints similar to those above described.
A dose of this medicine given occasionally during the warm season, will effectually prevent "the vomiting and purging of children"—a dreadful disorder, which annually destroys thousands of the infant part of our citizens. It is likewise the mildest and most certain remedy known, and has restored to health strength a great number when in an advanced stage of this fatal complaint. Particular and plain instructions are given for every part of the necessary treatment in such cases.

Children generally take this medicine with eagerness; having a pleasing appearance, and an agreeable taste.
The Restorative Powder for the Teeth and Gums.

For the prevention and cure of
BILIOUS AND NERVOUS FEVERS IS RECOMMENDED
Hahn's ANTI-BILIOUS PILLS
THIS Medicine has been attended with a degree of success highly grateful to the inventor's feelings in several parts of the West Indies and in the Southern and Middle States, &c.
The testimony of a number of persons can be adduced, who have reason to believe that a timely use of this salutary remedy has, under Providence, preserved their lives when in the most alarming circumstances.
Facts of this conclusive nature speak more in favour of a medicine than columns of pompous eulogy founded on mere assertion.
It is not indeed presumptuously proposed as an infallible cure, but the inventor has every possible reason that can result from extensive experience for believing that a dose of these Pills taken once in every two weeks during the prevalence of our bilious fevers, will prove an infallible preventive; and further, that in the earlier stages of those diseases their use will very generally succeed in restoring health, and frequently in cases estimated desperate and beyond the power of common remedies.
The operation of these pills is perfectly mild, no as to be used with safety by persons in every situation and of every age.
They are excellently adapted to carry off superfluous bile and prevent its morbid secretions—to restore and amend the appetite—to produce a free perspiration and thereby prevent colds which are often of fatal consequences. A dose never fails to remove a cold if taken on its first appearance: they are celebrated for removing habitual costiveness—sickness at the stomach and severe head-ache—and ought to be taken by all persons on a change of climate.
They have been found remarkably efficacious in preventing and curing disorders attendant on long voyages, and should be procured and carefully preserved for use by every seaman.

Hamilton's Elixir,
A sovereign remedy for colds, obstinate coughs, asthma, sore throats, catarrhs, and approaching consumptions.— To persons who have children afflicted with the HOOPING COUGH, this discovery is of the first magnitude, as it affords immediate relief, checks the progress, and in a short time entirely removes the most cruel disorders to which children are liable. The Elixir is perfectly agreeable, and the dose so small that no difficulty arises in taking it.

Hamilton's Grand Restorative, Is recommended as an invaluable medicine for the speedy relief and permanent cure of Nervous Disorders Violent cramps in Consumptions the stomach and Lowness of spirits back
Loss of appetite Indigestion Impurity of blood Melancholy Hysterical affection Gout in the stomach Inward weaknesses Pains in the limbs and debility Relaxations, etc.

Hamilton's Essence and Extract of Mustard.
A safe and effectual remedy for acute and chronic rheumatism, gout, rheumatic gout, palsy, lumbago, numbness, white swellings, chilblains, sprains, bruises, pain in the face and neck, etc. etc.

Lee's Ointment for the Itch.
Warranted an infallible remedy at one application, may be used with perfect safety by pregnant women, or on infants a week old, not containing a particle of mercury or any dangerous ingredient whatever, and not accompanied with that tormenting smart which attends the application of other remedies.

Hahn's true & genuine German Corn Plaster.
An infallible remedy for corns, speedily removing them root and branch, without giving any pain.
